

FLACSO-WTO Chairs Award

2010

The WTO Chair at FLACSO-Argentina opens a call for papers and essays for the FLACSO- WTO Chairs Award, 2010 Edition.

The FLACSO - WTO Chairs Award recognizes and rewards creative, pro-active and soundly argued works on developing countries and the World Trade Organization.

Topic

The general topic is developing countries and the WTO. Theoretical works as much as empirical or case studies are welcome. Papers and essays may deal with institutional and political aspects as well economic and social impacts.

In particular, for the Edition 2010, we welcome papers addressing:

- Developing countries and the world trading architecture
- Developing countries and the Doha Development Round
- Developing countries and the WTO dispute settlement system
- Developing countries, the WTO and non traditional trade issues, in particular, intellectual property and environment.

Award

The FLACSO – WTO Chair will award US$ 1.000,00 (one thousand US dollars) to the author/s of the best paper/essay and US$ 500 (five hundred US dollars) and certificate to the author/s of the paper/essay that merits a Special Mention.

Winners will be selected by a Committee formed by FLACSO's researchers and invited experts. The Award will be made effective at seminar to be held at FLACSO-Argentina, on the November 25, 2010. The WTO Chair at FLACSO-Argentina will cover selected authors transportation and accommodation in Buenos Aires, if needed. Only one author per paper will be covered in the case that the papers are co-authored.
